BRIEF SUMMARY

Student Development Cell and Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Raje Ramrao Mahavidyalaya, Jath jointly organized One Week Student Induction Programme between 19/08/2025 to 26/08/2025. The fifth session lecture was delivered by Dr. Madhumati Y. Shinde who expressed her views on “IMPORTANCE OF WOMEN EMPOWERMENT IN EDUCATION AND INTERNAL COMPLAINT COMMITTEE WORKING AND PROCESSES” on 23rd August, 2025 (Saturday). The session aimed to sensitize students to gender equality, the role of education in women’s empowerment, and the mechanisms in place to ensure a safe and inclusive campus environment.

The session was graced by Ms. Dr. Madhumati Y. Shinde, Coordinator of the Women Empowerment Cell, who served as the Resource Person. She delivered a compelling and informative address on the significance of empowering women through education, encouraging female students to take initiative and seek equal opportunities. Dr. Shinde also elaborated on the structure, role, and functioning of the Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) as per the guidelines of UGC and POSH Act, 2013, emphasizing the importance of awareness and prompt grievance redressal. The session was presided over by Mrs. Parvati R. Chougule, Chairperson of the programme. The presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Vice Principal Mr. M. H. Kareenavar, Student Development Cell Coordinator Dr. Arvind Pawar, and other committee members, added value and support to the proceedings.

The event began with a warm introduction and welcome of the guest by Ms. Mehajubin Mujawar, followed by effective anchoring of the session by Ms. Rohini Shinde. The session concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks proposed by Ms. B. N. Mali, expressing gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty members, and students for their enthusiastic participation. The session proved to be insightful and impactful for first-year students, particularly in fostering a culture of equality, safety, and empowerment within the academic space. It laid a strong foundation for students to recognize their rights and responsibilities in ensuring a respectful campus environment.

Outcomes of the Programme

1. Enhanced Awareness on Women Empowerment

Students gained a deeper understanding of the importance of empowering women through education and the pivotal role it plays in shaping an equitable society.

2. Understanding of Legal and Institutional Frameworks

Participants were introduced to the roles and responsibilities of the Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act, 2013.

3. Promotion of Gender Sensitization

The session helped cultivate a respectful and inclusive environment by encouraging gender sensitivity among students and staff.

4. Clarification of ICC Structure and Procedures

Students and faculty learned about the formation, functioning, and procedural aspects of the ICC, including how to file complaints and seek redressal.

5. Encouragement of Open Dialogue

The programme provided a platform for students to ask questions, share concerns, and engage in open discussions regarding gender issues on campus.

6. Empowerment through Knowledge

The lecture empowered female students, in particular, by informing them of their rights and institutional mechanisms available for their protection and support.

7. Inspiration for Active Participation

Students were motivated to actively participate in gender equality initiatives and become responsible members of the academic community.

8. Support for a Safe Campus Environment

The programme reinforced the institution's commitment to creating a safe, inclusive, and harassment-free learning environment.
